ADDITIONS TO PROPOSAL FOR THE CONSTRUCTION OF CERTAIN BUILDINGS ON THE INSANE ASYLUM GROUNDS, HONOLULU, T. H.

At the urgent request of various general Contractors, the Superintendent of Public Works will consider (in addition to the segregated proposals heretofore called for) blanket bids or proposals, for the entire completion of work set forth in sections 1 and 2, and in sections 3 and 4 of the plans and specifications for the above mentioned buildings. Sections 5 and 6 were not included in these blanket proposals inasmuch as the bids would be very liable to exceed the unexpended portion of the appropriation (approximately $63,000) made for this work.

An additional sheet to accompany the segregated proposal heretofore called for has been gotten out and copies are on file at the office of the Assistant Superintendent of Public Works, and will be furnished intending bidders when called for.

The Superintendent of Public Works reserves the right to accept or reject any or all bids.

KOREAN DIED ON STEAMER COPTIC

The yellow flag at the masthead of the Occidental and Oriental liner Coptic yesterday afternoon was not lowered as soon as usual and the quarantine inspection was rather lengthy. The cause of this was the fact that a Korean steamer passenger for this port died of typhus on the night before the steamer reached here. As soon as the doctors learned of this fact the customs launch was warned to give the big liner a wide berth and the quarantine launch was sent post haste for Dr. Cofer. While the launch was gone after the doctor the regular inspection was carried on. To the crowd on the customs launch it seemed hours before the return of the "Oahu" and the long swells did not particularly appeal to those who had missed their dinner on account of the Sierre's arrival. Upon the arrival of Dr. Cofer the quarantine was raised as far as the first cabin passengers were concerned and the ship came in the harbor.

Anchor was dropped off the foot of Fort street at about 4:30 and a big hawser from the stern was used to swing the vessel into a berth near the ship Fort George. The steamer passengers were immediately taken in barges to the quarantine island where they will be detained for a period of twelve days. There were ninety-five Japanese and 154 Korean steerage for this port. The cabin passengers are free to come and go as they like but the steamer will not be allowed to come alongside the dock and the cargo will all be lightered. The steamer will be thoroughly fumigated and the ship will proceed to San Francisco at nine o'clock this morning.

The Coptic has a fair list of passengers for San Francisco and seven for this port including Immigration Inspector G. R. Cullen and wife, who are returning from a vacation trip in the Orient. Among her through passengers is Miss Carl, who had the honor of being the first person to paint the portrait of the Dowager Empress of China. She is an American woman and received marked favors from the Empress. The picture was treated with the utmost reverence on its journey to the St. Louis exposition. The Chinese have a tradition that the departure of the likeness of some member of the royal family is the omen of impending national disaster but the Empress has shown herself progressive in at least this one thing, that she defied this tradition.

Dr. Kitasato, Prof. Hozumi and party are distinguished Japanese journeying to the International Congress of Arts and Sciences at St. Louis. After the congress adjourns all the foreign delegates are to travel together, first visiting Washington and being received by the President.

There were several army officers on board who are returning from service in the Philippines.

SIERRA STRUCK BIG HURRICANE

At noon yesterday the Oceanic liner Sierra put in an appearance off port and at half past one docked at the company's wharf, fourteen days, eighteen hours and thirty-seven minutes from Sydney to the entrance of Honolulu harbor. The actual steaming time was fourteen days, four hours and thirty-seven minutes. The passage was far from being a pleasant one because of the unusually heavy weather that the ship encountered during the first part of the voyage. After leaving Sydney on the afternoon of the 8th, the Sierra ran into a succession of heavy southeasterly and easterly gales which lasted all the way across the Tasmanian sea. These storms were accompanied by very high waves. After sailing from Auckland on the 12th fine weather was encountered until the morning of the 14th, when the wind began to blow from E. S. E. in a terrific gale. The hurricane continued on the two following days with fierce squalls and mountain-high seas. The Sierra hove to off Pago Pago at 4 o'clock on the morning of the 16th. After lying off port for four hours Captain Houllette decided it would be folly to attempt to land through the seas that were dashing at terrific height over the reefs, so the vessel proceeded directly to this port, bringing her Pago Pago freight with her. On the 17th the wind abated and the rest of the voyage was made in fine weather although the swells were heavy. The steamer has an unusually large passenger list for San Francisco and thirteen passengers for this port. The cargo for this port consists of 47 cases of whiskey and one box of insects consigned to the Board of Agriculture. The liner will get off for San Francisco at 10 o'clock this morning and will carry a good sized crowd from here to San Francisco.

EVERY COMMUNITY has been benefitted by the introduction of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy into this country. There is scarcely a neighborhood but that someone can be found whose life has been saved by its use. It is the best known medicine for all forms of stomach and bowel troubles. It never fails to give immediate relief and can always be depended upon. For sale by all Dealers. Benson, Smith & Co., Ltd., Agents for Hawaii.

MEDICAL TRAVELLER TELLS OF ORIENTAL HOSPITALS

Among the passengers on the liner Coptic is Dr. F. E. Fremantle, a county health officer in England who is spending some time in a tour of the world studying sanitary and hospital conditions in various countries especially with a view to the investigation of tropical diseases. He arrived in India last September and spent six months in the study of the plague which was then at its height. The awfulness of this curse may be partially realized when one hears that in a single week during the height of the visitation there were fifty thousand deaths. From India the doctor proceeded to the Malay Peninsula where he spent some time in the study of beri-beri in Singapore and Siam.

Dr. Fremantle arrived in Tokio in the middle of June and spent two weeks there. The military hospitals he found to be good. The medical system follows the German school and is very thorough. All the volunteer hospital organizations in the country like the Red Cross are conducted on the principle of helping Japan first and humanity next so they are under the thumb of the military medical department. This arrangement has proven much more satisfactory than the separate system in vogue among the Russians as it saves much unnecessary confusion and duplication of work. The new military hospital at Tokio is a well-built structure capable of caring for 2000 patients. It is constructed on what is known as the pavilion plan, the buildings being long one-story wards connected by covered passage ways. It is of wood and thus susceptible to fire but like most Japanese buildings there is not much to burn and it would be easy to remove the patients on short notice.

This hospital is well ventilated, all the windows being open during most of the day and there is plenty of room. The Japanese soldier does not demand much in the way of comforts so that the wards are not hampered by a mass of odds and ends. The nursing is done by men of the military medical department and by the women of the Red Cross Society. The Japanese women have all the qualities necessary to a good nurse. They are kind, sympathetic, gentle and patient, although their training is elementary. There are about 2000 patients in the different hospitals of Tokio.

Five times a week the Japanese women of the upper class meet to roll field bandages and to other work for the wounded at the front. Once a week the European women meet for the same purpose. These bandages are prepared with the strictest aseptic precautions. Dr. Fremantle saw three princesses of the blood royal and several baronesses at work rolling bandages. The royalty and aristocracy have also taken up the work of visiting the wives and families of those who have gone to the front. This is an innovation in Japan and is a significant fact for it is the first time that the upper class has mingled with the common people.

After his visit in the capital of the Sunrise Empire Dr. Fremantle spent a month in travelling in North China and Korea. He first visited Fusan which is the coming port of Korea. The Japanese evidently have some men who are not at the front for here he saw a big force at work rushing construction on the Fusan-Seoul railway which is designed to open up the Hermit Kingdom to the commerce of Japan. Twenty miles of the railway are already completed. At Chiemulpo the Japanese were busily engaged in raising the sunken Russian cruisers. The hospital at Seoul is no more than an ordinary field hospital.

BALDWIN HAS INTERVIEW WITH GOVERNOR CARTER

E. D. Baldwin, former sub-agent of public lands at Hilo, accompanied by his attorney, Henry E. Cooper called on Governor Carter yesterday.

The object of the interview was the making of a statement by Mr. Baldwin in regard to the facts in his case, and to give assurances to Governor Carter that at no time had he mixed the Government money up with his own, but on the contrary, had always kept it separate and distinct.

Governor Carter told Mr. Baldwin that he had been misquoted by some of the papers as saying he was still going for him (Baldwin). "What I said," the Governor repeated to an Advertiser reporter after the interview, "was that I was still going after every official who mixed up Government money with his own."

The report corrected by the Governor related to an interview he gave to the evening papers about the action of the grand jury in Hilo.
